Jesus in a fallen world.

Four Interpretive Methods:

1. Preterist
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

Chapters 1 – 3

Jesus speaks to Seven Churches in Asia to _____ them where they are doing well and to _____ them where they are falling short.

Chapters 4 – 7

In John's first vision Jesus comes _____ to him, but in his second vision, Jesus calls John _____ to heaven.

In Revelation there are three sets of seven: _____,
_____, and _____

The Seven Seals introduce us to the _____.

- The White Horse = _____
- The Red Horse = _____
- The Black Horse = _____
- The Pale Horse = _____

The point of chapters 4 through 7 is how Christians aren't promised an _____ or a life without _____.
But we are promised God's faithful _____ and _____. So no matter what we're going through, Jesus is with us every step of the way, and that's something worth singing about!

Chapters 8 – 11

After the Seven Seals we are introduced to the Seven _____.

If the Seven Trumpets are retelling the same events of the Seven Seals, but from a different perspective; the Seals are from a _____ perspective, and the Trumpets are from a _____ perspective.

Judgment alone will not turn people's hearts towards God. People also need to hear the hope of the gospel. And often times, experiencing the _____ of a fallen world is the very thing that opens the door for the gospel to be heard!

Chapter 12

Behind the scenes Satan is always at work to _____ the Church.
